

Organizations

Life in the Greater Hazleton area is made much more fulfilling through the hard work of numerous organizations. The Hazleton Art League puts on regular shows, showcasing the talents of local artists.

The Greater Hazleton Philharmonic keeps the area's appetite satisfied with a summer concert series each year, along with other performances at the Rev. J.J. Ferrara Center for the Performing Arts in downtown Hazleton.

Whatever your personal need, a local organization likely exists to meet it in Hazleton.
